Long Term Care Administrators Week.

March 9th-13th.

Since 1994, the American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) has sponsored this national observance each March.

This week honors and celebrates the important roles of Administrators.

Administrators are key players in the care team and are entrusted with the responsibility of managing the care of our loved ones. They touch the lives of residents and families, and, most importantly, ensure that their staff provides the highest level of quality care to a vulnerable population.

Here are some suggested ways in which you might honor and recognize your Administrator.

- For individual recognition – flowers, candy or some other treat; lunch or dinner out; gift certificates such as to a spa so that they can be on the receiving end of care giving; tickets to area events.
- For center recognition – a special meal, social or theme day at the center hosted by someone other than your administrator; celebrate with special activities that include residents, family, volunteers and staff.
- For community recognition – Email a press release that can be submitted to your local newspapers and state trade associations.

ACHCA Celebrates Long-Term Care Administrator's Week

Washington, DC – March 9, 2020 – March 9-13, 2020 is National Long Term-Care Administrator's Week. During this week, staff, residents, families, and volunteers have the opportunity to say "thank you" and honor the administrators who lead our nation's long-term care communities.

Administrators are key players in the care team and are entrusted with the responsibility of managing the care of our loved ones. They touch the lives of residents and families, and, most importantly, ensure that their staff provides the highest level of quality care to a vulnerable population.

To become an administrator takes commitment and dedication. They undertake a rigorous internship, followed by state and national board exams. Upon becoming an administrator, they must continue life-long learning to provide the best care possible in every situation. They are masters of multi-tasking, taking into account every aspect of a person's life, not just their medical needs, while building a sense of home and community.
